Eight Years of Dancing

Irish dance competitions take place every weekend of the year throughout the United States, Canada, Ireland, England and Australia. The 30 students at the O'Rourke Academy of Irish Dance in White Plains, founded in 1995 by a former champion, LuAnn O'Rourke, compete at levels ranging from beginner to championship. The school's adult team holds the title of North American National Champion.

The school will hold its eighth annual dance recital on June 1 at 6 p.m. at the Rye Country Day School in Rye. Tickets are $10 and $15 ($20 at the door). Information: (914) 793-4230.
