

The Adult Ceili Team of the O'Rourke Irish Dancers of White Plains has won the National Championship in San Diego, Calif., this past Fourth of July weekend. The top teams in the country competed for the title of National Champions of Adult Ladies Ceili. The team is comprised of eight women: Eileen Eustace, Maureen Dolan, White Plains resident Karen Hanley, Kelly Rosenow, Jeannie Kieran, Laura Treseler, and the mother-daughter team of White Plains residents Maureen Ryan and Mary Broderick Ryan. The director of O'Rourke Irish Dancers is LuAnn O'Rourke Boyd, TCRG. Boyd teaches out of White Plains and is currently looking for new beginner adults and children. For information visit www.orourkeirishdancers.com.